

[SOLUTION] Sandwiched Cities

Answer: HAMBURG

First, solve the clues in the two columns. The clues in the second column are arranged in alphabetical order.

First column clues:

Hawaiian greeting (5): ALOHA

Charlatan or swindler (10): MOUNTEBANK

Vacuum flask (7): THERMOS

Month of Halloween (7): OCTOBER

Spirit (4): SOUL

Japanese beer brewery (7): SAPPORO

Primary component of air (8): NITROGEN

Second column clues:

All but the signal, in radio (5): NOISE

Islamic artistic decoration (9): ARABESQUE

Spineless person (6): COWARD

Blanket carrying character (5): LINUS

Famous Darude song (9): SANDSTORM

Gorgon slain by Perseus (6): MEDUSA

Guy Kawasaki, for one (10): EVANGELIST

Now, for each pair of words in the first and second columns, a city is “sandwiched” in between the two words. The first letters of these cities spells out the answer: HAMBURG, another city and also where the hamburger, a type of sandwich, originated from.

H -- ALOHA NOISE
